DELAFIELD ART WALK KICKS OFF 2010 SUMMER CALENDAR OF EVENTS

DELAFIELD, Wis.— The Delafield Area Chamber of Commerce and Tourism Council is pleased to announce the city will host its annual Delafield Art Walk on May 21-22. The Art Walk is the official kick off to Delafield's 2010 Summer Calendar of Events, which offers many great family-friendly things to do.

At the Delafield Art Walk, visitors can browse the works of local artists and purchase those they can't bear to leave behind, all while strolling through the streets of Delafield's historic downtown. Delafield's local restaurants and boutique shops will be a welcome stop, featuring Art Walk specials all weekend.

COMPLETE CALENDAR OF DELAFIELD SUMMER EVENTS

June 19 Delafield 5K Run/Walk and Kid's Fun Run

Enjoy a day of family fun and fitness at Delafield's annual event, which takes runners on a 3.1-mile trek, beginning and ending in the city's downtown business district. Pre-registration is $20 for the 5K ($25 race day). Register the children for the Kids Fun Run, just $10 right up to race time.

July 9-10 Delafield Block Party

The much anticipated annual Delafield Block Party is a free two-day celebration of music, food and summer fun. Live music and delicious food from Delafield restaurants draws families into the Colonial Williamsburg-styled downtown area.

July 10 35th Annual Lake Country Art Fair

This long-running art fair in Delafield's Naga-waukee Park features over 150 juried exhibitors specializing in ceramics, pottery, jewelry, wearable art, painting and many other medias. Sponsored by the Lake Country Women's Club, all proceeds go to charity.

SO MUCH TO DO EVERY WEEKEND IN JUNE, JULY AND AUGUST

SummerStage Theatre in Kettle Moraine State Park – Lapham Peak

SummerStage is an outdoor theatre that brings dramatic, musical, and even comedic performances into an open air, rustic setting. Bring a blanket, lawn chair and your favorite picnic meal and beverages. A full schedule, details and ticket information is available online at www.summerstageofdelafield.org.

Hawks Inn Historical Museum and Visitors Center Tours

Experience the sights and sounds of a genuine stagecoach stop with a tour of Hawks Inn, the social and political center of Delafield in the mid 1800s. It's recognized by the National Register of Historic Places and offers free educational tours every Saturday from 1-4 pm all summer long.

DELAFIELD – SUMMER MEMORIES AWAIT YOU

This lively city, set halfway between Milwaukee and Madison, Wisconsin, in an area known as Lake Country. Delafield is amid sparkling lakes, bike trails, a state park, plentiful shopping in trendy boutiques and popular stores, and a historic downtown that is the center of many of the city's activities. It offers comfortable luxury and value hotels, making Delafield an ideal vacation getaway for the entire family.
