

LAKE COUNTRY – WAUKESHA COUNTY – WISCONSIN DELAFIELD

Nestled in Lake Country is the small city (pop. 7,200) of Delafield, Wisconsin, the hidden gem in the county, that offers an abundance of open green space (lake, river, parks) full of recreational amenities, lodging, shopping, and dining. Find peace in this beautiful environment that glaciers formed, leaving rolling landscape within the city.

An official Ice Age Trail Community, Delafield offers interconnected trail systems for both biking and hiking enthusiasts, Nagawicka Lake and the Bark River for kayaking, fishing, and water sports. You can find unlimited photo backdrops to use and share your visit in Delafield.

Commerce is nicely distributed around the city in 3 districts: the downtown Delafield shopping and dining district and home to The Delafield Hotel, I.d. Restaurant and be Fitness.

Two additional commercial districts, where Holiday Inn Express & Suites, La Quinta Hotel & Suites and AmericInn are located, along HWY 83 within the city's footprint. Restaurants and additional shopping centers are plentiful in these districts, from National Chain Retailers to grocery and home improvement.

This small city boasts big adventures for business or leisure travelers. Everything you need is in Delafield, Wisconsin.

Delafield is located off I-94 at exits 285 or 287. Welcome!

Delafield Lodging Properties

Downtown Delafield:

The Delafield Hotel
1-800-584-8772

Hwy 83/I-94 District:

Holiday Inn Express Hotel & Suites
1-888-465-4329

LaQuinta Hotel & Suites
1-800-753-3757

AmericInn Hotel & Suites
262-646-3300